Classroom Ten-pack Deluxe Stereo Headsets

Model 3066AV-10

As the number of computers being used within classrooms continues to increase, your headsets need to keep up! This ten-pack of 3066AV headsets is ideal for mobile applications such as on AV carts, computers-on-wheels (COW), or when you need to safely pack them up after lessons for the day are finished.

The 3066AV has an ambient noise-reducing microphone and earcups to help filter out external distractions, keeping students on task. The 3066AV is also for language learning, VoIP uses, gaming, and for use in computer labs and other multimedia applications.
